

Northwestern Black History (Context)	Question	Answer
The University created the space as part of its agreement with students to end the Bursar's Office takeover in April of that same year.	2. What year did the Black House become a dedicated safe space for African-American students on campus? Bonus: What is the Black House's exact address?	1968; 1914 Sheridan Road
Daniel Hale Williams was born in Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania on January 18, 1856 to a free mulatto property owner and went to school in Annapolis, Maryland, Rockford, Illinois and Janesville, Wisconsin before studying medicine with a leading surgeon in his office.	3. Daniel Hale Williams, Northwestern's first African-American student, graduated from Chicago Medical College of Northwestern University in this year____ ; 32 years after it was founded in 1851.	1883
2nd sitting president in the history of Northwestern to visit the campus. The first was Theodore Roosevelt nearly 60 years ago in 1903. Then-Senator Obama was also Northwestern's Commencement speaker in 2006.	4. What year did President Obama embark on his historic visit to Northwestern's campus to deliver a major address on the economy to Kellogg Students? Bonus: Where did he deliver his historic address?	2014; Cahn Auditorium
The candlelight vigil is part of a week-long series of on-campus events that celebrate the life and times of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.	5. The annual Candlelight Vigil is Northwestern's longest-running observance of the life of MLK and has been hosted for more than 20 years by this black greek organization, MLK's fraternity. Bonus: What are the	Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Incorporated; Old Gold and Black

	fraternity colors
Jean Baptiste Pointe du Sable first arrived on the western shores of Lake Michigan about 1779, where he built the first permanent nonindigenous settlement, at the mouth of the river just east of the present Michigan Avenue Bridge on the north bank. (not exactly NU history, but Chicagoland so close enough)	6. for a settlement he built near the mouth of a river in the late 18th century, a black explorer by the name of Jean Baptiste Pointe du Sable is known as the founder of what major American city?	Chicago

Black History 2000-present	Question	Answer
For her whole as Annalise Keating on the hit ABC show, How to Get Away with Murder, Viola Davis became the 1st Black woman to win an Emmy for Lead Actress in a Drama Series in 2015.	1. Who was the first Black woman to win an Emmy for Lead Actress in a Drama Series?	Viola Davis
Robert Johnson, founder of BET, became the first black billionaire in 2000.	2. Who was the first black billionaire?	Robert L. Johnson
Mo'ne Davis, born in 2001, played in the 2014 Little League World Series and was the first girl to pitch a shutout in Little League World Series history. She was also the first Black girl to play in the Little League World Series.	3. Who was the first girl to throw a shutout in the Little League World Series?	Mo'ne Davis
Dr. Simmons made history when she served as president at Brown University in Rhode Island from 2001 – 2012.	5. Who was the first African American president of an Ivy League institution?	Dr. Ruth Simmons

Birth of a Nation, written, directed by, produced, and starring Nate Parker broke records at the Sundance Film Festival in 2016.	6. Which film broke records at the Sundance Film Festival being bought for $11.5 million?	Birth of a Nation
--	--	-------------------

Traditional Black History Facts	Question	Answer
Malcolm X began to speak to a meeting of the Organization of Afro-American Unity when a disturbance broke out in the crowd of 400. A man yelled, "Nigger! Get your hand outta my pocket!" As Malcolm X and his bodyguards moved to quiet the disturbance, a man rushed forward and shot him in the chest with a sawed-off shotgun.	1. Malcolm X, revolutionary thought leader and black human rights activist was assassinated at this venue in Harlem on this date. Bonus: When was Malcolm X born?	The Audubon Ballroom, February 21, 1965; May 19, 1925
Four freshman students at North Carolina A&T went into Woolworth, Greensboro, NC, and "sat-in" at the Whites-only lunch counter and asked to be served	2. In what city and state did the sit-in at the first segregated lunch counter occur during the freedom riders movement?	Greensboro, North Carolina
The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is the nation's oldest, largest and most widely recognized grassroots-based civil rights organization. The only African American among the organization's executives was W.E.B. Du Bois, ain't dat a bitch	3. What year was the NAACP founded?	1909

Plessy v. Ferguson legalized segregation by claiming that as long as segregated facilities were "separate but equal." they did not violate any constitutional rights. In reality, segregated facilities were shamefully unequal. "Separate but equal" was a myth that was used to uphold systems of White Supremacy.	4. Which famous Supreme Court case in 1896 declared that segregation was legal and constitutional, as long as segregated facilities were "separate but equal?"          Bonus: Which famous supreme court case led to the desegregation of schools?	Plessy vs. Ferguson; Brown vs. Board of Education
In 1950 the Nobel Committee awarded the Nobel Peace Prize to the first African-American, United Nations (UN) official Ralph Bunche. He received the Peace Prize for his efforts as mediator between Arabs and Jews in the Israeli-Arab war in 1948-1949.	6. Awarded in 1950 for his efforts as mediator between Arabs and Jews in the Israeli-Arab war in 1948-1949, Ralphe Bunche was the first African-American recipient of what prestigious award?	Nobel Peace Prize
Founded Feb. 12, 1909, the NAACP is the nation's oldest, largest and most widely recognized grassroots-based civil rights organization. The only African American among the organization's executives, Du Bois was made director of publications and research and in 1910 established the official journal of the NAACP, The Crisis.	8. Who was the only African American among the original NAACP executives?	W.E.B. Du Bois